How we ensure the H&S of our employees, self-employed tutors and volunteers

Health and Safety at work:

- Is a responsibility of all employees, self-employed tutors and volunteers themselves.
- Is the duty of each employee, self-employed tutor and volunteer to take reasonable care of their own and other people's health, safety and welfare and to report any situation which may pose a serious or imminent threat to the well-being of themselves or of any other person.
- Section 7 of the HSWA places a responsibility on employees to assist the employer through compliance with legal requirements; and to be mindful of their own health and safety and that of those affected by their activities.

- To this end, employees, self-employed tutors and volunteers are asked to co operate by:

- o Ensuring their personal insurance is up-to-date

- o Providing documentation when asked to do so, including updated information on any changes to their documentation

Tutorage Ltd will ensure that, at all time, it provides:

- a healthy and safe working environment with the aim of eliminating all instances of occupational incidents, accidents and illnesses.

Some of the work conducted on behalf of Tutorage Ltd is by self-employed tutors and volunteers. They will work in schools, children's homes, libraries or other public places and these venues should have in place their own dedicated Health and Safety Policy.

Where concerned, we ask anyone providing a service on behalf of Tutorage Ltd to familiarise themselves with the Health and Safety Policies of the place in which their work is being carried out.

We also employ full and part time staff at our offices at 93 Harpfield Road, Stoke, ST4 5LT

Where relevant, for all employees, self-employed tutors and volunteers, and any third parties who engage with Tutorage Ltd, we pay particular attention to:

- how to communicate this information to employees and other people in our office premises
